Why Sponsor the HEFMA 2025 Conference?

Sponsoring the HEFMA Conference provides an exceptional opportunity to:

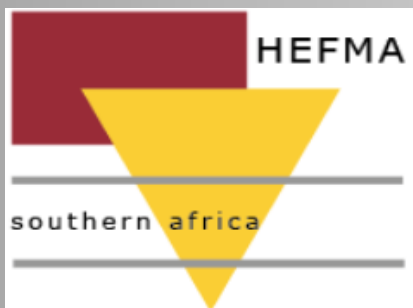

- Increase brand visibility and reach within the higher education and infrastructure sectors
- Showcase your programmes, initiatives, and successes
- Engage directly with key decision-makers and practitioners
- Demonstrate commitment to capacity-building and national development
- Position your organisation as a thought leader in skills development and innovation

As a valued service provider with a successful history and reputation for doing business within the higher education sector, we invite you to consider becoming one of the sponsors for this upcoming event. The event is the biggest gathering of facilities management professionals from higher education institutions across Southern Africa.

Your sponsorship will provide you with the opportunity to showcase your services in one of the exhibition stands, participate in co-branding activities, and receive positive media coverage for your organisation and services to the Higher Education Facilities Management practitioners and Executives from different Universities, TVET Colleges and the sector delegates including international delegates.

We will also provide an opportunity for your company to make a short presentation depending on your sponsorship contribution (please see value proposition listed below).

This sponsorship offers a unique chance to enhance your brand visibility, connect with industry professionals, and demonstrate your dedication to advancing communities.
